

Job Posting

From August, 2017

For our Flavor Division, Department Sensory & Consumer Insights EAME in Holzmindenwe are seeking a

Sensory & Consumer Insights Project Leader Sweet

Major Tasks/Responsibilities

- Plan and develop project proposals, and execute project objectives in line with SCI best practice and resource.
- Manage sensory tests and consumer research activities to support strategic projects
- Analyse and interpret data to make recommendations to project stakeholders.
- Support Symrise Category, key account customer and R&D teams to ensure consistent communication input to improve Symrise flavors.
- Engage in regular exchange with members of the sensory team and continuously develop current best practices and research methodologies.

Qualifications

- University degree in Sensory/Consumer Science, Psychology or related studies
- Minimum of 3 years of professional experience in the Sensory/Consumer Science environment
- Fluency in English, German knowledge is advantage
- Statistical knowledge and good project management
- Presentation & Audience Handling Skills

To apply

<https://www.symrise.com/careers/career-opportunities/job-vacancies/sensory-consumer-insights-project-leader-sweet-mf/>

For further questions please contact Karin Groeneveld - email karin.groeneveld@symrise.com.