

Job Posting

From August, 2017

For our Flavor Division, Department Sensory & Consumer Insights EAME in Holzmindenwe are seeking a

Sensory & Consumer Insights Research Manager

Major Tasks/Responsibilities

- Develop and promote actionable sensory & consumer insights and leverage knowledge to commercial opportunities cross-Category
- Continuous review and development of current best practices, research methodologies and development of creative solutions to complex challenges
- Propose and manage complex strategic consumer sensory research platforms
- Actively promote Sensory & Consumer Science agenda in both internal and external environments to ensure clear and consistent communication.

Qualifications

- University degree in Sensory/Consumer Science, Psychology, Sensometrics or related Studies
- Minimum of 6 years of professional experience in the Sensory/Consumer Science environment
- Fluency English, German beneficial
- Extensive statistical knowledge
- Well experienced with project management tasks
- Professional curiosity, self-starting Initiative and creative problem-solving skills

Please note: This is a full-time position, located in Holzminden (Germany)

Symrise AG
Human Resources
Frau Karin Groeneveld
Muehlenfeldstr. 1
37603 Holzminden
E-Mail: karin.groeneveld@symrise.com www.symrise.com